The New Jersey Alliance for Social, Emotional,
and Character Development, Inc.
presents their
16th Annual Statewide Conference

2025 NJASECD Annual Conference

“Growing Goodness Through Character Education”

Thursday, May 29, 2025, 8:00 am–2:00 pm at Rider University

Conference Fee: $150 (includes NJASECD Membership and Buffet Lunch)

“Don’t be such a goody-goody.” All of us have heard that familiar putdown. In today’s “Big Me” culture, old-fashioned “goodness” has certainly gotten a bad rap. Humility, integrity and empathy seem hopelessly outdated, paling next to a current emphasis on flamboyant self-promotion. How can we shape our students to be caring people of character when practically everything they see in their culture and social media seems to point them in the opposite direction?

With that challenge in mind, we have designed an engaging conference to inspire you to address the issue. We hope to show you how character education is the key to molding a better school, better thinkers, better people, better citizens. We all know that preaching doesn’t work so our lively breakout sessions, led primarily by NJ/National Schools of Character, will demonstrate through replicable practices what an agenda promoting goodness looks like at the elementary, middle school and high school levels. We purposely accented the “growing” aspect since goodness must be learned and implemented over time. We must plant the seeds of goodness early, we nurture them through intentional practice and we cultivate them consistently through individual and collaborative acts of caring.

Get ready, mark your calendars now for Thursday, May 29 for an unforgettable day of learning and connecting with your colleagues. Thomas Santo, a former school principal who led his school to become a National School of Character multiple times, will introduce the conference’s theme in an innovative TED Talk-style presentation. Our new conference schedule ends at 2pm so that you can get an early start home!

Join us as we celebrate our 2025 New Jersey Schools of Character. and you will make the last week of May an exciting beginning to the way you will transform your school into a caring Center of Goodness.

2025 Schools of Character Recognition Ceremony will begin the conference.
